

CLAPA's London Scavenger Hunt

Money raised today will help CLAPA's vision of a society where having a cleft lip and/or palate is no barrier to achieving your desires and ambitions.

We want to make sure that you are making the most of your time in London, so we have prepared a team Scavenger Hunt for when you aren't holding a bucket.

Rules:

1. Photographic evidence is required for every challenge. Please use #CLAPALondonRaid so we can check your progress.
2. Challenges can be attempted in any order
3. Be strategic - you do not need to complete them all
4. The winners are the team with the most points
5. Nothing illegal and keep everything PG rated

- See a street performer in Covent Garden (5 points)
- Team photo inside a red telephone box (5 points per person)
- Give a stranger a piggy back (5 points)
- Team photo by Platform 9 ¾ (5 points)
- Pose with tourists at an iconic London landmark (5 points per tourist)
- Team impersonation of a statue, the statue must be in photo (5 points)
- Team reflection in something other than a mirror (10 points)
- Stage a Beatles album cover (10 points)
- Photo with a doppelganger of someone in your team (15 points)
- Take a photo on public transport without touching the floor (15 points)
- Find a Banksy (15 points)
- Team photo bomb (15 points)
- Photo of your team on a boat (20 points)
- Make a guard talk at Buckingham Palace (20 points)

TOTAL: